Vancouver – Colonna – Monster Lake – Salmon Bay/Grizzly Town (L/D)

Today's meal breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Today's accommodation Ramada Revelstoke / Prestige Salmon Arm

In the morning, drive to Kelowna via the Fraser Valley and several Lower Mainland areas. After lunch, visit a famous brewery to learn about the brewing process and have the opportunity to taste various famous brews. Then proceed to the famous Water Monster Lake. This is the haunt of OGOPOGO, the lake monster in Indian mythology and legend. Afterwards, we drove to visit a famous local honey farm and watched the daily life of worker bees outside the special glass. The owner of the garden also introduced it, which was of great educational significance. Arrive at Salmon Bay in the evening. Dinner at local restaurant.

Salmon Bay/Grizzly Town – Rogers Pass – Field Town – Banff (B/L)

Today's meal breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Today's accommodation Ptarmigan / Caribou Banff

After breakfast, drive via Rogers Pass, the highest point of Highway 1, to the town of Field in Yoho National Park. The town is located on the banks of the Kiama River, surrounded by mountains, and has beautiful scenery. After lunch, proceed to Moraine Lake surrounded by the Ten Valley Peak mountains (depending on the road conditions at the time). The Canadian $20 banknotes of the 1960s and 1970s used Moraine Lake as the back image. Then go to Banff National Park to visit Lake Minnewanka, Two Jack Lake and Bow River Falls. Then follow Tunnel Mountain Drive via Surprise Corner and head towards Banff. We stayed at a hotel in Banff city center for the night. After nightfall, Banff Street becomes unique and full of shops and restaurants. Visitors can fully appreciate the unique local atmosphere. In order to facilitate the free activities of the group members, we will bring our own dinner on that day.

Banff – Lake Louise – Columbia Glacier (Giant Bobsleigh and Glass Bridge) – Jasper (L/D)

Today's meal breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Today's accommodation Chateau Jasper / Lobstick

Head to Lake Louise, known as the Jewel of the Rockies. Enjoying a sumptuous lunch at the Lake Louise restaurant is truly one of life's great pleasures. After dinner, take the Icefields Parkway, known as the most beautiful road in the world, to the Columbia Glacier in Jasper National Park and transfer to a giant snowmobile (additional admission fee). Visit the 300-meter-deep Athabasca Glacier and get in touch with the relics left by the Second Ice Age. Then visit the Columbia Glacier, which cost tens of millions and was newly built in 2014 (additional admission fee); group members can stroll on the 280-meter-high glass bridge and appreciate the world's most unique ecosystem up close. After dinner, go to Jasper National Park and stay overnight at a hotel in the town to experience the small town style in the national park.

Today's meal breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Today's accommodation Coast Sundance / Hearthstone Lodge

In order to give the group members plenty of time to move around in the morning, they will prepare their own breakfast that day. Then visit the Malian Canyon in Jasper National Park. The canyon was originally a waterfall, but after years of erosion by rapids, it formed a vertical and steep rock wall, as deep as 5.5 kilometers. The winding trail has several viewing platforms where visitors can enjoy the unique views of the canyon from different angles. Then proceed along the highway towards British Columbia, overlooking the magnificent scenery of Mt. Robson. After lunch in Valmont, head to Clearwater, located at the entrance of Wells Gray Provincial Park, to visit the 200-meter-high Spahats Falls, whose bottom is made of volcanic rocks. Arrive at Sun Peaks Resort in the evening.
