As we head east on National Highway 1, we arrive at Hope Town, a former gold mining town. It is the capital of chainsaw carving in Canada and the filming location for more than a dozen Hollywood films. Go to Kamlu City, the best producer of American ginseng in North America, visit the factory, learn about its growth environment and efficacy, and taste ginseng tea and other products. In the afternoon, we followed the North Thompson River to Clearwater, the second largest provincial park in British Columbia. This area experienced glacial and volcanic periods thousands of years ago, and was carved by nature, creating many U-shaped canyons and waterfalls. Therefore, it is also known as a waterfall park, among which Hammackan and Dawson Falls are quite distinctive.

Following the gold rush road in the Cariboo region during the golden boom period, passing through Blue River and Valemont, we arrived at Mount Robertson, the highest point in the Rocky Mountains. It has been shrouded in mystery for many years. It has peaks, glaciers, waterfalls, canyons, quartzite caves and fossils, rare and endangered species, and its geological and ecological conditions have been listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. There are rainbow trout and brook trout in Medicine Lake, making it a paradise for anglers. Many wild animals are often found nearby, such as grizzly bears, black bears, white-tailed deer, elk, wolves, goats, grazers, etc. Maligne Lake is the most beautiful and artistic lake in the Rocky Mountains. It is a high-altitude deep-water lake. There is a spiritual island in the lake, and you can take a cruise to wander among the mountains and rivers.

Pyramid Lake is the heart of Jasper and is the preferred place for canoe picnics. As the name suggests, Patricia Lake has the temperament of a royal noble princess. Athabasca Falls is as powerful as a rainbow. The Columbia Icefield is a wonder of the world, and contacting thousands of years of glaciers is a rare experience. The gorgeous color of Bi Tou Lake is indescribably blue. The Emerald Lake has clear blue water and is naturally calm. The misty light of Lake Louise is like a fairyland on earth. The scenery is pleasant and makes people forget to leave.

Moraine Lake is surrounded by ten peaks, just like the stars looming over the moon. The lake is emerald green and picturesque. It was once the chosen location for the background image of the Canadian dollar 20 dollar bill. Lake Minnewanka is what the Indians call the Elf Lake Monster and has its own magical legend. Bow River Falls was the filming location for the 1950s Hollywood movie, Rivers of Destiny. Waterton National Park is the southernmost park in the province of Alberta. Waterton Lake is located between the border of the United States and Canada. It has beautiful red rock canyons. Cruise ships on the lake take passengers to wander among the mountains and rivers, making it a paradise.

Reluctantly leaving the land of paradise, we came to Lundbrick Falls, which is the most typical and beautiful among river waterfalls because of the blue sky and green trees. Walking on the mixed highway No. 3 and No. 93, enjoying the beautiful scenery of the Kootenay River, we arrived at Kimberley, the world's largest zinc and lead mine production site. We also saw Canada's largest cuckoo clock. Traveling from south to north along the Kootenay River, we arrive at the Fairmont Hot Springs Resort Villas and enjoy a soothing hot spring bath.

The comfortable soaking of the hot springs made me feel my muscles smooth and my sleep was very good. At Radiant, I turned onto Highway 95 and drove north along the Columbia River to Golden Town. It was another golden town during the golden period. It was the best place for fishing in the province. The scent of mountain mist is often lingering in Seven Brothers Mountain. Mount McDonald and Mount Shekirk on Rogers Gap Road were formed much earlier than the Rocky Mountains, and the rock structure is extremely hard. The rugged and winding mountain road was once the most difficult section of the Pacific Railway construction. Secamous is the most outstanding place for Dutch immigrants to engage in dairy production, especially the diversified flavors of ice cream. Vernon and Colonna are the hometowns of Basin fruits, with excellent environment and suitable for retired people and places to immigrate.

Colonna, a city known as Shangri-La, has beautiful scenery of mountains and rivers. It is rich in fruits, has many wineries, and golf courses can be found everywhere. If it is the fruit harvest season, you can experience the joy of picking fruits in the orchards, or choose a winery to try the joy of ice wine. Or take a speedboat to swim in Monster Lake and feel the excitement of flying on the water. In the afternoon, you will pass through two rest stops in Mallet Town and Langley Town before returning to Vancouver.
