As you head east on National Highway 1, you will reach Hope Town, the former gold rush town. It is the capital of chainsaw carving in Canada and one of the filming locations for more than ten Hollywood movies. Go to Ganlu City, the best place for flowering ginseng in North America, to visit a ginseng farm, learn about its growth environment and efficacy, and taste ginseng tea and other products. In the afternoon, we drove along the North Thompson River to Clearwater, the second largest provincial park in British Columbia. This area experienced glacial and volcanic periods thousands of years ago. It was carved by nature and created many U-shaped canyons and waterfalls. Therefore, it is known as a waterfall park. Hanmackan and Daosheng Falls are quite unique.

Following the gold rush road in the Cariboo region during the golden boom period, we passed through Blue River and Valemont and arrived at Mount Robertson, which is the highest point in the Rocky Mountains and has been shrouded in mystery for many years. It has peaks, glaciers, waterfalls, canyons, quartzite caves and fossils, rare and endangered species, and its geological and ecological conditions have been listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. There are rainbow trout and Brook trout in Medicine Lake, making it a paradise for anglers. Many wild animals are often found nearby, such as grizzly bears, black bears, white-tailed deer, elk, wolves, mountain goats, drought-stricken animals, etc. Maligne Lake is the most beautiful and artistic lake in the Rocky Mountains. It is a high-altitude, deep-water lake. There is a spirit island in the lake and a cruise ship wandering among the mountains and rivers.

In the morning, the water of Lake Louise is calm and as quiet as a mirror, with clear water, blue sky, snow-capped mountains and green forests reflected in it. Castle Mountain is the first of the Rocky Mountains, with a unique and majestic mountain shape. There is a canyon at the foot of the mountain, with waterfalls at the top and bottom, gurgling water, extremely clear. Banff is a century-old tourist attraction and the highest tourist attraction in the world. It has an exciting array of exquisite products and various delicacies. Bow River Falls was once the filming location for Hollywood's Journey to the East in the 1950s, and was Marilyn Monroe's famous work. Marvel Point offers a panoramic view of the forest castle in the mountains. Lake Minnewanka was called the Water of the Spirits during the Indian period. It is long and deep and is the second longest lake in the Rocky Mountains. It has water masters and power generation facilities that can provide hydropower needs in the Banff area. It is picturesque in all seasons.

Walk along the Eagle Gap Road to the last spike, which is where the Pacific Railroad Company finally completed the East Coast to West Coast Railway a hundred years ago. It reminds people of the Chinese workers who worked hard, braved hardships and sacrificed their lives. Vernon is a city with a prosperous food processing industry, and all kinds of fruits and dried fruits and ice cream are coveted. Colonna is the hometown of fruits. There are many orchards and wineries everywhere, especially the world-famous ice wine production area, which has a unique taste and excellent flavor. There are also many golf courses located there. It is truly a Shangri-La paradise, one of the most livable cities in Canada.
