With the mountains in the background, you feel like you are in a fairyland dream. In order to facilitate the free activities of the group members, we bring our own breakfast on this day. The meal-packed group enjoyed a sumptuous lunch at the restaurant of the Lake Louise Hotel. Then pass the Rogers Gap Trail in Icefields National Park. This gorge is the highest point of Route 1 (4,330 feet high) and was discovered by explorer Albert Bowman Rogers in 1881. This great discovery also contributed to the completion of the Pacific Railroad. Feiying'ao among the lofty mountains, the scenic Three Gorges and the famous ghost town are all good places to take pictures on the way. Arrive at Salmon Bay/Vernon in the evening. Dinner at local restaurant.

Salmon Bay is the only way for salmon to return every year. More than 150 species of birds inhabit the swampy plains along the banks of the Salmon River. After breakfast at the hotel restaurant, head to Kamloops, a city famous for its American ginseng. Lunch at a Chinese restaurant. After the meal, we went to the American ginseng farm to see the process of growing American ginseng and have a professional explain the varieties of American ginseng. Then follow the highway, pass through the Fraser Valley, arrive at Vancouver International Airport, and fly back to your place of origin. Please arrange flight departure time after 9pm. Upon arrival, visit the famous Butchart Garden in North America and head to downtown Victoria in the afternoon. Return to Vancouver by boat in the evening.
