Today's accommodation

Departing from Toronto in the early morning, we took the McDonald-Cartier Freeway across Southern Ontario and headed to Kingston, the ancient capital of Canada, overlooking the United States. We passed the magnificent luxury prison, the former residence of the first prime minister, the famous Queen's University, the ancient military fort, the Royal Military Academy and other famous monuments, and took photos of the Old Parliament Building. Then proceed to Canada's capital—Ottawa. After arriving in the capital, you can admire and take photos at the majestic Parliament Hill, with its peak sculpture art, and the beautiful Ottawa River. Later visit the Canadian War Museum, one of the world's three most important collections of war art, and the Canadian Museum of History, one of Canada's most popular and most visited museums and one of the oldest cultural institutions in North America. Later we will go to Canada's second largest city, Montreal, known as the "Little Paris of North America".

Montreal-Quebec City

Today's meal breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Today's accommodation

Combining modern technology and cultural heritage, Montreal has rich and exciting attractions worth visiting: St. Joseph's Cathedral, the largest Catholic church in North America, the old city with a mix of old and new European architectural styles, and the magnificent Notre Dame Cathedral, built in the mid-17th century. Its simple and majestic architectural style and amazing miracle stories will leave a good impression on you in this "City of a Thousand Towers". Then go to visit the flower-filled greenhouse botanical garden. Each greenhouse contains valuable and rare species from different climates around the world. It brings together unique insect species from all over the world and characteristic gardens from various countries. You can enjoy the flowers and butterflies dancing, and you can also take photos at the Olympic Stadium Big O. *After lunch, head to Quebec, the oldest city in North America, a city listed as a "World Cultural Heritage" by UNESCO. The French flavor is strong, with its cobblestone streets, French-style buildings, stone churches, etc. in the city. They all exude a deep medieval French romantic European style. Climb up to the observation deck and enjoy the beautiful scenery of the city. You can have a panoramic view of the ancient city of Quebec, the ancient battlefield, and all the beautiful European-style buildings of the 17th and 18th centuries, making you feel like you are in an ancient European town. Then you will be given free time to fully enjoy your leisure time and walk through the stone streets filled with handicrafts and dessert shops. *The Greenhouse and Botanical Garden will be canceled after the opening of the Natural Ecology Hall.

Today's accommodation

In the morning, wave goodbye to Quebec City and head to the picturesque waters of St. Lawrence National Park, one of the eight wonders of North America. Take a Thousand Island Cruise boat to shuttle between large and small islands. You can enjoy the castles built by nobles in the 18th century, as well as the world's shortest international bridge and other landscapes. In a starry private summer resort, take a closer look at the heart-shaped Love Island, which was built in the 20th century with a cost of 25 million US dollars. The island not only has European-like castles, but also has beautiful scenery such as a mini French Arc de Triomphe, and then returns to Toronto.

Toronto-Niagara Falls (5-day tour departs today)

Today's meal breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Today's accommodation

In the morning, go to Niagara Falls Scenic Area, one of the seven natural wonders of the world. Niagara Falls lives up to its name. The thunderous sound of the water is deafening and its majesty is breathtaking. The water from the peak cascades fifty meters straight to the bottom of the valley, turbulent and turbulent like thousands of horses galloping. Climb the Falls Sky Tower to overlook the Niagara Falls. You can also watch the famous Imax movie and explore the mysterious waterfalls. (Summer itinerary) Take the Hornblower sightseeing cruise through the waterfall, listen to the waterfall tell its mysterious autobiography, and enjoy the joy of listening to the waves as the ancients did. Afterwards, go to the most grape-producing vineyard and winery in North America to taste local famous wines. In addition to purchasing the grape juice exclusively secreted by the winery, you can also go to the vineyard to watch the grape growing process and take photos. (6-day tour) Stay at the Falls Hotel in the evening and have free time to go to the famous casino, or go to the most popular Clifton Hill to ride the observation wheel. You can also enjoy the night view of the Falls after dinner.

Toronto day trip

Today's meal breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Today's accommodation

Depart early in the morning and pass by downtown Toronto attractions including the City Council, the University of Toronto with its classical Victorian architecture, Chinatown, etc. Afterwards, we went to visit Ripley's Aquarium of Canada, which has the longest underwater viewing tunnel in North America, more than 57 billion liters of water and more than 100 interactive devices. Walking in front of the window feels like you are surrounded by the entire ocean, and you feel like you are on the bottom of the sea. Along the way, you can also see giant manta rays, hammerhead sharks and other rare marine life. It is very spectacular and is a new eye-catching attraction. The nearby Toronto landmark, the CN Tower, is now the fifth tallest "free-standing building" in the world. (MAY-SEPT) Then go to the shores of Lake Ontario and take a sightseeing boat to enjoy the spectacular skyscrapers in downtown Toronto and the beautiful island landscape (seasonal itinerary). Finally, visit Casa Loma. This medieval castle standing on a hill gives people a sense of nobility and simplicity. Its unique architectural style has attracted many Hollywood movies to be filmed here.
