【Alberobello】 The entire house of "Tululi" is painted white except for the roof. The front is a square rectangle, and the roof is made of gray limestone piled into a pointed cone shape. The shape is very special and cute, resembling a mushroom. More than 1,400 "Tululi" buildings form the cute village of Alberobello, which makes people feel like they have stepped into a real version of the cartoon world. Then visit the fantasy city of Matera. The epic Roman atmosphere of the place has also attracted many movies to be shot here, such as the popular superhero movie "Wonder Woman" and "The Passion of the Christ" directed by Mel Gibson. 【Matera】 Matera has traces of human habitation as early as the Paleolithic Age. From the 8th to the 13th century, the caves on the top of the mountain were used as a shelter for monks fleeing persecution from the Byzantine Empire. Later, they gradually became the residences of local residents. Houses were built on the mountain, forming a unique cave-dwelling mountain city landscape. Matera was listed as a World Cultural Heritage in 1993. Then drive to the hotel, check in and rest.

It was built by Charles III of the Bourbon Dynasty in the 18th century. It was designed to imitate the Palace of Versailles and is comparable to the Palace of Versailles and the Royal Palace of Madrid. The interior decoration is quite gorgeous and exquisite. It was listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1997 and has also been used as a filming location for many movies. Then return to Naples, a beautiful city famous for its rich history, culture, art and gastronomy. City tour: 【New Castle (Appearance)】 Located opposite the port of Naples, it was built in the 13th century. It was designed and built by French architects ordered by Charles I of the Anjou dynasty, the first king of the Kingdom of Naples at that time, to move the capital. The four cylindrical towers on the city wall and the surrounding moat are all in the style of a typical French castle. The triumphal arch at the entrance is known as a representative masterpiece of the transition period from Gothic to Renaissance style; 【San Carlo Theater (appearance)】 Not far away is the Teatro San Carlo, one of Italy's three major opera houses with a long history. Opposite is the Galleria Umberto I, which is like a smaller version of the Milan arcades and is home to various famous brands, shops or cafes;【Royal Palace of Naples (appearance)】It was built in 1600 by the architect Dominique Fontana. After many reconstructions, it became the palace of the Bourbon dynasty after the 18th century. On the eight huge walls in front of the palace, there are eight marble statues of the most important kings here in the past, which are full of the essence of Baroque architecture; 【Egg Castle (Appearance)】 Castel del Sol is the oldest castle in Naples, with a history of more than 2,000 years.

Legend has it that when the castle was built in the 6th century BC, a wizard placed an egg. If the egg broke, the castle would disappear immediately, and it would also bring disaster to Naples. This is one of the best vantage points overlooking the Bay of Naples and Mount Vesuvius. [Special arrangement to taste authentic Neapolitan pizza] Naples is the birthplace of modern pizza, and its preparation method has been selected as the "intangible cultural heritage" of mankind by the United Nations World Heritage Committee.

Today, you will be accompanied by a full-time licensed Chinese-speaking official guide for a full-day in-depth tour of Roman history and culture (with a thoughtful Chinese-speaking headset service): [Castle Sant'Angelo (appearance)] It was originally the tomb of Emperor Hadrian and is now a national museum. It has a round upper part and a lower part, and the surrounding city walls are in the shape of a five-pointed star, which is tall and solid. There are twelve angel statues on the Holy Angel Bridge below it, symbolizing the twelve disciples of Jesus; [Piazza Navona] Adjacent to the Pantheon, the square has Baroque palace buildings, exquisite fountains and romantic cafes. Three of the fountains are art masterpieces not to be missed and were completed by the sculptor Bernini in 1651; [Pantheon (visit inside)] Praised by Michelangelo as "the design of an angel", it was transformed into a church in the Middle Ages. Its majestic and awe-inspiring dome interior has become a symbol of Rome itself; [Plaza de España] Famous for the movie "Roman Holiday" starring Audrey Hepburn, the shipwreck fountain in the square is a sculpture themed after the old boats that carried wine on the Tiber River. Standing on the gorgeous Baroque steps and looking down at the prosperous but ancient Rome, the scenery is so beautiful that it makes you feel trance-like; [Wishing Fountain] Also known as the Trevi Fountain, it is the largest Baroque fountain in Rome. Legend has it that if you turn your back to the Trevi Fountain and throw a coin from your left shoulder to the Trevi Fountain with your right hand, you will return to the eternal city of Rome in the future. Two coins will lead to a new love, and three coins will bring marriage; [Arch of Constantine] Constantine the Great was a legendary emperor in Roman history. He unified the entire territory of Rome during his reign. The Arch of Constantine was built after he defeated his strong rivals and unified the western part of Rome. After 2,000 years of ups and downs, it still retains its original perfect shape; [Colosseum (appearance)] Called the most representative attraction in Rome, it is the largest open-air amphitheater in ancient Rome. The beautifully designed and practical Roman Coliseum claims to have a capacity of over 50,000 people and was listed as one of the Seven Wonders of the New World in 2007; [Special gift of tiramisu dessert] Tiramisu is a classic Italian dessert famous for its rich texture and unique taste. A special gift of authentic tiramisu dessert is given, hoping that the distinguished guests will have a happy and good mood.
